

I am an Artist

I am an artist. Perhaps it suffices just to say "I" – a minimalist approach.

According to Erving Goffman, the self is a "dramatic effect arising diffusely from a scene that is presented." In this way, a molded, plastic figure could assert subjectivity.